[This Bible record is from Davis L. McWhorter, Bethel, N.C. Mr. McWhorter adds this data, "Samuel Caldwell, above, was for many years Register of Deeds in Logan Co., Ky., was an officer in the War of 1812, married Anne Balch, step-daughter of Prof. Geo. Marlin McWhirter, who married Martha (McCandless) Balch, widow of Rev. Hezekiah James Balch, one of the authors of Mecklenburg (N.C.) Declaration of Independence." This Robert Caldwell was a son of Capt. John Caldwell who married Margaret Phillips in Ireland and led a large group of Scotch Presbyterians to America, landing in Pa. in 1727. Later Capt. John went to Va. and secured a large grant for his colony and most of the group moved to what was later called "Southside, Va." Several of Capt. John's sisters and their husbands came with him as did some of his wife's family - the Phillips. Among the kin, was a sister of Capt. John Caldwell, Jeane or Jane, who had been married in Ireland to Alex. Richey (Sr.) The Richeys and Caldwells intermarried many times and many went to S.C. during and after the Rev. War. The compiler is a desc. of Jeane Caldwell & Alex. Richey. This Bible record was sent to Mr. McWhorter by Mrs. Morton, Farmville, Va.]
